What the Doodle? parts 1-2 by Joshua Morales (Fri., 12:00noon & Fri., 2:00pm)

What do Golden Doodles, Labradoodles, CockAPoos, Snoodles, and Berniedoodles have in common? They are all doodles (a combination of a purebred dog with a Poodle). The real question is how to groom and style them. It is impossible to predict their personality and body types. Plus, their coat types range from short to long, straight, curly or wavy, thin, dense or in between - so other than doing a short easy maintenance trim - how can they be styled? In this inventive two part presentation, Joshua will first discuss how to evaluate their conformation and coat and will follow up with a PowerPoint presentation illustrating a variety of "doodle" styles. If you would like to learn how to evaluate and style those multi-faceted, sometimes impossible "Doodles" - don't miss a minute of these two innovative presentations.

Buyer Beware! (Where Are My Shears?) by Dara Forleo (Fri., 4:00pm)

Have you ever had the feeling that selection of shears, thinners, and chunkers were so overwhelming you could not decide what to choose? Yes? Let's talk . . . Style, Steel, and Edge. How to shop for the perfect set of shears is the focus of this shear delight seminar. Don't forget to bring your shears — they can tell your story.

The Art of Competition, parts 1-2 by Irina Pinkusevich (Part 1: Sat., 2:00pm) (Part 2: Sat., 4:00pm)

Have you ever thought about participating in a pet styling competition, but would like more information before jumping in? Are you currently a pet styling competitor but want to improve your performance? Even if you're NOT interested in competition — would you like to improve your overall skill level? Then this seminar is definitely for YOU! Don't miss this fantastic opportunity to learn about [Competition Pet Styling] from international award winning, GroomTeam USA member and outstanding speaker, Irina Pinkusevich.

The Michelin Trim — a "Hands-On" Demo by Lynnette Whitsel Jacobsen (Sat., 10:00am)
